LAURA BERNAL's woman is the one who express her femininity not forgetting the good taste. She likes to reinvent her style continuously; an actual woman, dreamer and dynamic, with a well defined personality.

Our essential base is an elaborated and inspirational design in which the combination of fabrics and its textures, as well as the details, configures the personal character of each piece of the collection.

The outcome is a perfect look for the daily outfits, which depending on how are combined give room to either a casual outfit or a sophisticated look, for a youthful woman, cosmopolitan and with a freshness air.

Laura Bernal's collections are conceptualized, designed and produced entirely in Spain. We take care of every little detail so that each of our garments gets to the shop perfect and treated a luxurious product.

We defend the value "Made in Spain" and we believe in Spain as an international reference in the fashion world.

We really believe that future is written according to the things we do in the present, and that's how Laura Bernal team works day by day.
