Our firm also attends to other markets as the institutional cleaning sector, disinfectant firms, automation firms, hotels, restaurants, etc.

From its beginning, our company has worked with imagination by giving new alternatives to the market and offering something else than only competitive prices. By this way, we have got to settle our products in a high quality level that the market has considerably appreciated.

Nowadays, CARMABA, S.L., is continuously working hard to offer innovator products. We are investigating, in collaboration with Faculties of Biology, the development and the application of new products which prevent illnesses and allergies. This way and philosophy of working has let us to access very exigent markets which are also receptive to original and quality products.

Between our products, we have a new and innovator treatment against the biologic pollution, which is in the course of getting the patent.

This treatment is effective against fungus, virus and bacteria (as for example "Legionella Pneumophila"). This treatment has shown its effectiveness in the last epidemic suffered by our city. The possibilities of the application of this innovator treatment in several sectors and its rise expectative bring up the necessity to expand our installations so that we could attend our projects at short and middle term.
