GRUPO MARÍTIMA SURESTE, LOGISTICS AND TRANSPORT SERVICES

When you work with Grupo Marítima Sureste you are working with a company with decades of experience in the sector, authenticity, reputation, flexibility and transparency, where you will find a close customer service, providing your logistics operations with the efficiency, speed and also the quality of service you were looking for.

Our team is made up of highly qualified agents, with extensive knowledge of the different modes of transport involved in being a freight forwarder. Our flexible approach and personalised attention make up our unique business proposal.

Grupo Marítima Sureste was founded in 1977 as a family business, focusing on sea, land, air and rail transport. Today it operates as an integral operator of reliable logistics and transport services with representation in the five continents, not only offering transport alternatives but also expanding its portfolio with customs services, warehousing and transshipment to provide its clients with a complete experience.

As an integral logistics operator, Grupo Marítima Sureste provides information on the use of methods and means for export and import operations, providing borderless logistics solutions in any type of transport.

We are a company whose maximum intention is to achieve excellence in the standard of the service provided. Grupo Marítimo Sureste stands out for its excellent flexibility, always adapting and innovating according to market demands. The success of these operations lies in anticipating the future demands of this sector and its customers.
