

LICORES Y DERIVADOS, S.A.

Tax ID Number: A30099477

Licores y Derivados is a family-based firm, founded in 1986 with the aim to produce all types of liquors. The hard work put into continually increasing product quality keeps the firm in constant renovation for machinery and facilities as well as staff training, research and new product development. The company takes a very serious attitude in standing apart from other firms in the market. Its history has been a constant progression towards offering better service to customers. A more immediate goal for Licores y Derivados is to position its brands in the national and international markets and define itself for high quality products and customer service.
