Novedades Agrícolas S.A., is specialized in the production, supply and turn-key installation of technology equipment for high performance intensive agriculture.

We have been supplying agricultural production technology for 25 years, to more than 30 countries world-wide, adapting technology to farmer needs.

For this, we have the efforts of more than 200 high-skilled people, directed to customer satisfaction.

Our quality assurance system, under UNE/EN/ISO 9001 standard, guarantees all project execution processes with a high level of efficiency.

In order to keep our leadership in the agricultural technology sector, we apply several Research and Development programs.

Our competitive advantage is based on offering to our clients a Training and Advice Program that assures success in the implementation of our systems and technologies.
